

Francesca Martini Award for an Experimental Graduate Thesis in Oncohematology 2024

in memory of Armando Felsani

The family and friends of Armando Felsani have chosen to contribute to the Francesca Martini Award established by NAnA ETS to honour his memory.

The Awards

NAnA ETS announces a competition for the Francesca Martini Award for an experimental degree thesis in Oncohematology with the purpose of supporting young graduates of value who wish to pursue their career in research and encourage them to access the PhD program. All the award-winning researchers become members of the NAnA Alumni Community.

The Evaluation Committee

The Evaluation Committee includes

- Lucio Luzzatto, President, University of Florence
- Stefano Casola, IFOM, Milan
- Francesco Mannelli, University of Florence
- Cristina Mecucci, University of Perugia
- Tiziana Ottone, University di Rome Tor Vergata

Requirements:

Candidates must have obtained a degree in the single-cycle degree program in Medicine and Surgery, Biotechnology, Biological Sciences, Pharmaceutical Biotechnology, Genetic Engineering, or Chemistry. Additionally, completion of a discussion of an experimental thesis on topics potentially relevant in the field of neoplastic hematologic diseases, with a minimum score of 110/110, is required.

A condition for the awarding of the prize is that the recipient participates in and is admitted to a doctoral research program in the field of oncological hematology, as evidenced by the presentation of the admission certificate. The admission proof for the doctoral program can also be submitted after the application deadline but no later than November 15, 2024.

Award Ceremony

The award will be presented by December 15, 2024.

DEADLINE

August 20, 2024.

AMOUNT

€5.000,00

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

To participate, you need to:

- Fill out the participation form.
